~25% of native bee species are cavity nesters. They make nests in dead trees, plant stems, rock crevices or snail shells. Wildlands and native landscapes provide nest material. Protect native bee habitat; leave dead wood, cavities and grass thatch for bees to make nests!