~75% of native bee species are ground nesters. If soil is deeply tilled, eroded, compacted, or heavily mulched their nests are destroyed. Conserve native bee habitat; protect bare ground for bees to nest in!

Bumble bees form communal nests

Some bees form aggregate nests

Females lay one egg in each cell

https://w3.biosci.utexas.edu/jha/about-native-bees